TV FOOD NETWORK. Responded to letter from TV Food Network seeking confirmation that the addition of the TV Food Network to cable systems prior to July 14, 1994 will not constitute a restructuring triggering refund liability pursuant to the Commission's rules, consistent with the Commission's rulings relating to the fX channel. (By Letter [DA 94-596] adopted June 13 by the Chief, Cable Services Bureau)

ACI MICRO. Denied ACI reconsideration of monetary forfeiture of $10,000 issued for willful violation of the Communications Act and the Commission's rules by offering for sale computers that had not been certified as required by the rules. (By Order [DA 94-575] adopted June 1 by the Chief, Field Operations Bureau)

GARY H. ANDERSON. Granted in part, denied in part, Anderson's petition for reconsideration of forfeiture order in the amount of $2,000 issued in violation of the Communications Act for unauthorized operation on frequency 4242.0 kHz on board the vessel JANET LYNNE, WYQ7080. (By Order [DA 94-571] adopted May 24 by the Chief, Field Operations Bureau)

MARITIME RADIO STATION WAP8267. Granted in part, denied in part, Hugh Mac Towing Corporation's petition for reconsideration of monetary forfeiture of $12,000 for willful violation of the Communications Act and repeated violation of the Commission's rules for failing to respond to Commission correspondence regarding operation on an unauthorized frequency. (By Order [DA 94-574]) adopted June 1 by the Chief, Field Operations Bureau)

SEABREEZE PARASAIL. Denied Seabreeze reconsideration of forfeiture of $2,000 for operation of radio station on 156.925 MHz with no authorization issued by the FCC. (By Order [DA 94-573] adopted June 1 by the Chief, Field Operations Bureau)

TN TECHNOLOGIES. Notified TN Technologies of an apparent liability for a forfeiture in the amount of $14,000 for willful violation of the Communications Act and the Commission's rules by offering an unapproved device for sale. (By NAL [DA 94-572] adopted May 31 by the Chief, Field Operations Bureau)

CABLE OPERATORS' RATE JUSTIFICATION FILINGS. Clarified deadlines and granted in part an extension of time to July 14 the time for submissions to correct or amend pending cost-of-service filings; all other filing deadlines remain unchanged. (By Order [DA 94-619] adopted June 13 by the Chief, Cable Services Bureau)
